FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Louisa Quittman, Director, Financial Education, Office of Consumer Policy, Department of the Treasury, 1500 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC, 20220, at (202) 622-5770 or pacfcya@treasury.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On June 25, 2013, the President signed Executive Order 13646, creating the Council to help build the financial capability of young people at an early age, in schools, communities and the workplace. Having a basic understanding of money management at an early age will make our young people better equipped to tackle more complex financial decisions in their transition to adulthood, when critical decisions about financing higher education and saving for retirement can have lasting consequences for financial security. Strengthening the financial capability of our young people is an investment in our nation's economic prosperity. The Council is composed of three ex officio federal officials as well as 22 non-governmental members appointed by the President with relevant backgrounds, such as financial services and education. The role of the Council is to advise the President and the Secretary of the Treasury on means to promote and enhance the financial capability of young Americans. In accordance with section 10(a) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, 5 U.S.C. App. 2 and the regulations thereunder, Louisa Quittman, Designated Federal Officer of the Council, has ordered publication of this notice that the Council will convene its fourth meeting on June 17, 2015 via teleconference beginning at 3:00 p.m. Eastern Time. Members of the public can access this teleconference through Treasury's Office of Consumer Policy website at <http://www.treasury.gov/pacfcya>. Documents that will be discussed during the meeting will be posted on the Council's Web site at <http://www.treasury.gov/pacfcya> on the day of the meeting. During this meeting, the Council will (i) vote on the final recommendations of the Council, and (ii) make announcements. Due to the significant logistical difficulties of scheduling the PACFCYA meeting, this meeting has been scheduled with less than 15 days' notice, (see 41 CFR 102-3.150(b)).
